

Collective Commitments for Parents

Woodcreek High School parents created the following “Collective Commitments” to support WHS learning targets and the school’s mission.

Core principles – Parents:

- Support and recognize student achievements
- Listen with interest
- Stay involved with the learning process
- Expect the best possible grades from their students
- Hold their student(s) accountable for their work
- Exhibit respect for students and teachers
- Provide opportunities for their student(s) to learn and develop
- Allow their student to resolve problems directly with a teacher before stepping in

Instruction – Parents:

- Make education a priority for their student(s) by encouraging the use of optional learning tools. (i.e. tutoring, study sessions)
- Set aside time and resources for homework completion
- Routinely check grades on Homelink – or any other teacher utilized grading program
- Help to address areas where their student(s) need improvement

Support – Parents:

- Ensure homework is done on time
- Are available to help with school work
- Are involved and support at least one school activity a year
- Attend games, performances and events
- Encourage their student(s) to join extracurricular activities. (i.e. club, team)
- Explore post-secondary options, including career possibilities with their student(s)
- Utilize school resources and stay informed
