

Free Citation Generators

NoodleTools' NoodleBib Express: <http://www.noodletools.com/login.php>

A comprehensive and meticulous citation generator. Creates citations by first asking the user a series of questions about the source they wish to cite (which can be tricky!). The user then types in relevant information for the citation.

EasyBib: <http://www.easybib.com/>

A fill-in-the-blank citation generator. You can also search for a citation by inputting a book's ISBN, although these ISBN generated citations are not always 100% correct.

KnightCite: <http://www.calvin.edu/library/knightcite/index.php>

Nice combination of fill-in and pull-down menus to create citations.

Son of Citation Machine: <http://citationmachine.net/>

A fill-in-the-blank citation generator. This website is keen to post the number and locations of those who are using its resources. Kind of strange...

Citation Guides

The Purdue Online Writing Lab (OWL @ Purdue): <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/>

Extensive writing and citation resources.

Honolulu Community College Library MLA Guides:

<http://honolulu.hawaii.edu/legacylib/mla.html>

Links to many MLA online guides, as well as specific links to citing internet sources.

Honolulu Community College Library MLA Examples:

<http://honolulu.hawaii.edu/legacylib/mlahcc.html>

User-friendly guide that shows lots of example citations, and also includes detailed directions and information.

Diana Hacker's Research & Documentation: <http://www.dianahacker.com/resdoc/>

From the author of Rules for Writers, this website has a comprehensive and up-to-date library of example citations, as well as additional information about how to conduct research.

For Fun

University of Washington's Citation Game:

http://depts.washington.edu/trio/quest/citation/apa_mla_citation_game/index.htm

Put pieces of a citation in the correct order and get immediate feedback! Includes questions both about APA and MLA formats.