TIPS ON WRITING YOUR 300/500 WORD ESSAY (Personal statement essay or Topic Essay)

- 1 Start with introducing yourself: Name, family, parents, siblings, where you are from, community service. Leadership programs or organizations, what major you are pursuing and why, etc., talk about yourself. What intrigues you, your strengths?
- 2 What are your abilities that stand out from others, or what obstacles have you faced in your young life to maintain GPA, community services, volunteerism, and other important qualities (such as music, athletic abilities, etc.) Indicate that you feel you are "worthy of being a recipient of (name of scholarship)" because?? Show your passion.
- 3 Talk about what you will do with your degree—short-term goals and long-term goals. Talk about, if given the opportunity to receive the scholarship, you will be able to pursue your dreams and fulfill your career in??? - And be a productive citizen in society. You may also note that the Fresno region desperately needs college degree individuals to fill the job market that serves a diverse community. In closing, reiterate the desperate need for financial support. Finally, make sure to check your grammar and edit, edit, and edit.

OVERVIEW FOR PREPARING FOR COLLEGE

Preparing for college is a significant task. Unfortunately, we often search for it without guidance or knowledge and begin the road too late or don't know which direction to go. The most crucial period for this preparation is from the 9th to 12th grade. It is during this period that a student's overall GPA is created. The GPA determines the student's class rank. Also, while in this phase of the student's life, they may start building up their volunteer hours. These hours are used to determine the student's community service involvement. These and other factors determine the student's college readiness and whether they will obtain entrance or scholarships to attend a College of their choice.
