Providing false information about a student or parent/guardian's residence will result in immediate disenrollment from the school and referral to the school where the student actually resides in accordance with Roseville Joint Union High School District Policies on student attendance. The District will contact law enforcement agencies when individuals are determined to have provided false or misleading information.

Please be advised that the District does verify residency using a variety of methods including checks of public records, visits to the residence, and photographs or video recordings of public areas.

Persons who provide false information under penalty of perjury are subject to criminal prosecution for perjury which is punishable by a fine and/or prison term of up to four years in state prison. (Family Code §6552; Penal Code §118, 125)

Persons providing false information under penalty of perjury also may be civilly liable for fraud, negligence and misrepresentation. Parties found civilly liable may be required to pay all damages caused to the District as a result of providing false information, as well as punitive damages. (Civil Code § 1709)

Persons who induce, obtain or otherwise solicit another person to provide false information on an affidavit are subject to the same criminal prosecution, fines, and imprisonment as the person directly committing perjury. (Penal Code §127)
