School Information

Students...just a reminder about campus boundaries during lunch time.

Students who want to play a game of basketball are welcome to participate on the blacktop.

Students who want to throw a ball or play soccer are welcome to participate on the grass soccer field.

If a PE class needs to use these areas students are asked to leave.

Students must be playing in these activities to have access to these areas at lunch.

All other students must eat in the cafeteria or quad or a classroom if the teacher allows it.
