2. Staff: This week is Midterms week, counselors are doing junior lessons next week (presentations on FAFSA), Junior Prom is on March 25, building of Master Schedule is underway, OHS is retaining all teachers and hiring for one English, one Construction, and one Drama teacher
3. ELAC: had a great turnout yesterday (addition of food, one-to-one phone calls), looking towards adding childcare to further increase turnout (had success doing this during Programs and Pathways Night and Back to School Night), ELAC using funds allocated in 23-24 plan for food as well as a college visit

V. Unfinished Business

1. Review Item

- i. 23-24 SPSA goals

Received feedback from teachers on Title I funding. This document explains how much we will allocate for specific actions to meet school goals. Dollar amounts could change, but action items will stay the same. Due April 20th. SSC will vote on final version at the April SSC meeting. Incorporates Prop 28 money and Health Academy funding. Sent out Title 1 survey to understand teachers' needs and priorities for using Title I funds. Next step is to send out a similar survey to parents and students.

VI.Data/Budget Presentation/Review

1. Review Prop 28 - Input from stakeholders
  - i. Proposed Budget Plan - DRAFT

Money going towards staffing, training, materials, supplies. In addition, district allocated $45,000 to buy acoustic shells and new uniforms for band (boosters will contribute some money as well).
